

Accident Reduction: Progress and Problems

The British Quarrying Industry Experience

Martin Isles

Director, Health and Safety, QPA

20 April 2007 - Munich

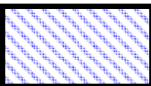

Accident Reduction: Progress and Problems

Scopes Differ

Opencast Coal
Slate
Heavy Clay
Architectural stone
Fluorspar, potash, etc.
Aggregates	Asphalt	Road/Airfield Surfacing	Slag	Marine
Industrial sand	Ready-mix Concrete	Precast Concrete	Mortar	Lime

 Health and Safety Executive "Quarrying"

 Quarry Products Association activities

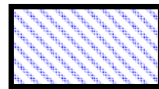

Accident Reduction: Progress and Problems

But overarching aims combine!

Health and Safety Executive

Quarry Products Association

Accident Reduction: Progress and Problems

- Zero Incidents expectation
plus
- Target of 50% reduction in 5 years in reportable incidents

Hard Target Progress: All Activities – Direct Employees

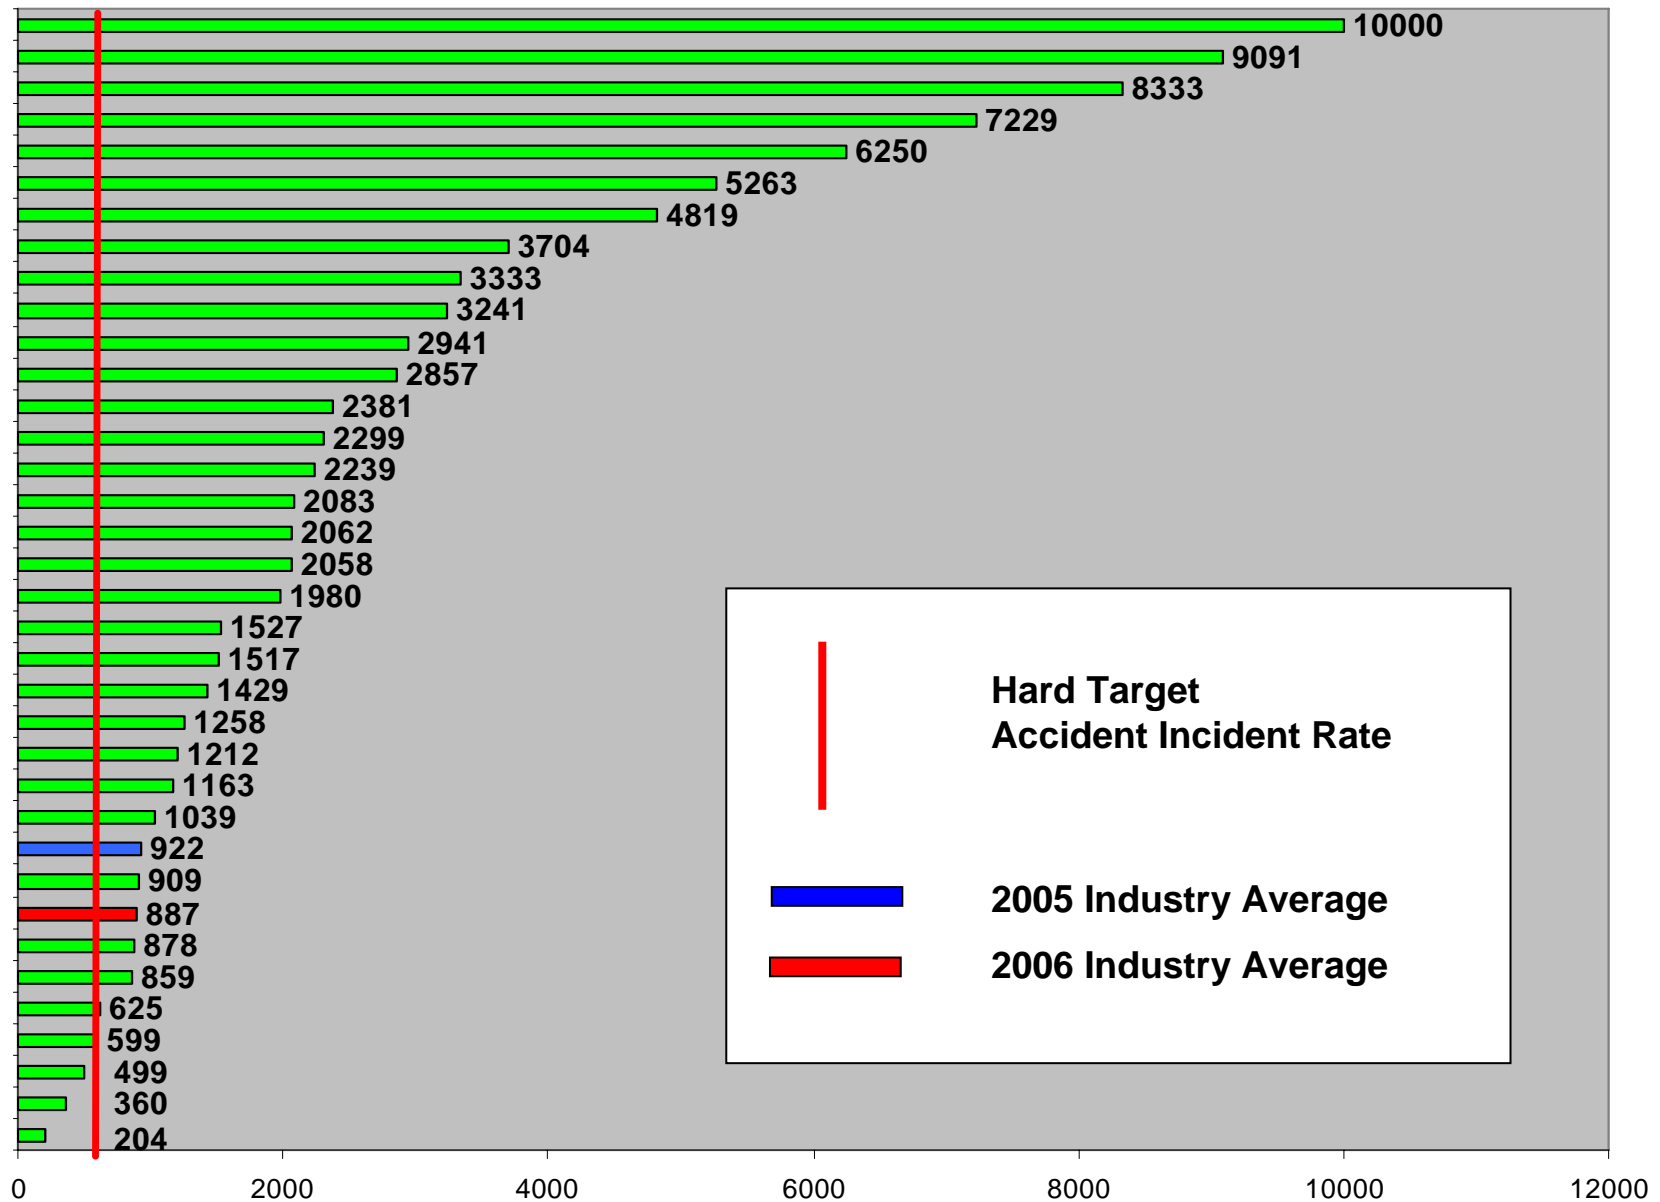

Hard Target Progress: All Activities – Total Workforce

Accident Incident Rates (AIR): All Activities 2006 (Direct Employees)

Accident Reduction: Progress and Problems

Need more information?

*For more details please contact :
Martin Isles, QPA*

Tel: +4420 7963 8000

e-mail: isles@qpa.org

Thank you for your attention

