BEST PRACTICE

LOCATION: ACTIVITY: SUB ACTIVITY: BEST PRACTICE No: COUNTRY OF ORIGIN: Company-wide Behavioural Safety management No Sub Activity Available BP1989 United Kingdom

ARTICLE YEAR COMPANY: COMPANY LOCATION: COMPANY TEL:

2017 Francis Flower Scunthorpe 07540 767895

TITLE	T
Aim for Excellence campaign
ARTICLE
DESCRIPTION
Francis Flower launched an 'Aim for Excellence' initiative which was designed to integrate safety into every daily operational process whilst engaging with all employees.
A combination of managers, supervisors and key staff members were identified across the whole business with delegates from operations, logistics, customer service, and head office functions. They were invited to attend the 'Aim for Excellence' conference launch.
The launch was a two day, interactive event designed to provide safety guidance whilst seeking feedback. The conference, which was attended by a quarter of the reviewing the previous year's safety performance and behaviours. 'Aim for Excell along with new group policies and procedures.	business, also involved
'Aim for Excellence' is a fully thought through process providing basic, across business safety targets and actions. The main driver of the campaign is to set business wide, non-negotiable safety standards that all employees can work towards.
The key cornerstones of the campaign are:
l A single vision
Shared values
Smart actions
Realistic measures.
The 'Aim for Excellence' launch also included an apprentice style workshop. Dele incidents from the previous year and then highlighted the most frequent or potent them in an honest and open way.
When delegates had decided on the most challenging aspects of health, safety a and their	and wellbeing affecting themselves colleagues, they were divided into groups. Each group created an 'Aim for Excell talk, covering one of the top four safety topics within the business.	ence' safety poster and tool box
At the end of the conference each group presented their poster and TBT to the w senior managers and members of the executive. The posters and toolbox talks h reproduced and will be used within the business over the coming year. Each pos who produced them. One poster and toolbox talk will be issued quarterly.	nave now been professionally
Following the conference, the empowered delegates returned to the business an Excellence' values to every member of the organisation using a Power Point pres
All company employees then signed personal charters, demonstrating their com Excellence' process targetted at driving safety changes for themselves and their
BENEFITS
<ul> <li>Extremely well received within business</li> <li>Business is recording an LTIFR of 3.26 and an AIFR of 22 (improvements</li> <li>Near hit reporting has increased by circa 300% over the period</li> <li>Buy-in at all levels in the business</li> <li>Sense of unity of purpose and commitment to safety in business</li> </ul>	of 80% and 44% respectively)
• An environment where safety matters every day, to everyone.
ARTICLE IMAGES

