TITLE
Development strategy to change the safety culture of the Thrislington Works
ARTICLE
Description A continuous improvement strategy was introduced using multidisciplinary teams based around the 4 shifts at Thrislington works. Each team was asked to produce measurable and visible improvements across a range of activities including health and safety. Fundamental to this approach was increasing co-operation and encouraging best practice benchmarking between each team. The process involved <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A management presentation to the teams outlining their purpose</li><li>• Allocating the teams responsibility for good housekeeping on specific areas of the site</li><li>• Ensuring that the teams had the resources to address H&amp;S issues</li><li>• Monthly review meetings of progress and future initiatives</li><li>• Re-allocating activities for other teams to action when appropriate</li><li>• Photographic evidence of changes and displaying team objectives on notice boards</li></ul> Benefits <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Significant improvements achieved and recognised by third parties</li><li>• Visual improvement to the site.</li></ul>
